

What joins us is greater than what separates us.

Issue #1
February 09

Happy Valentine's Day!

In this premier issue of Easy Access we invite you to join us each month in exploring and becoming a part of the rich and remarkable aspects of the global shift to higher consciousness.

Celebrate the power of love by joining with others committed to bringing light, love and harmony to the planet. We will help you open your heart to the ways of the Divine Feminine and nurture your inner divinity. We'll show you ways to open doors to unity, honor Mother Earth and finally, learn the secret to putting your loving intentions into action.

- Act Locally For Global Change

The Harmony Project

The Harmony Project is a peace initiative that is at the forefront of an emerging new paradigm of conscious inclusion. The Harmony Project provides a learning platform for those who wish to grow stronger in the practice and demonstration of their own faith while honoring and appreciating the sacred in other spiritual paths. Find out more about this global resource now:

Exploring The Path of The Divine Feminine

The divine feminine is present in all traditions since the beginning of time as the primordial She who creates from a central source. On Saturday, March 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Gloria Amendola, intuitive, teacher, writer and Magdalene Researcher, will present a workshop, “The Bloodline Mysteries—The Real DaVinci Code?” at The Sanctuary of Sophia in Mount Dora, FL [men are welcome].

A viewing of the independent film “Bloodline” is included. For details:

Act Locally For Global Change

We hope you're as excited as we are about the shift in focus by Americans from fear to love. If you want to open your heart and become active in helping a local community project-- but don't know quite where to start, the USA Service.org Web site is designed to help you find opportunities to serve in your neighborhood. Having great intentions is wonderful. Here's a way to find a community project in your area:
